

HOLY SAVIOUR CHURCH – CROYDON

Remembrance Sunday

13th November 2022

Processional Hymn – 292 Eternal Father, strong to save

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Malachi 4 – vv 1-2a – Murnell

See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. ² But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings.

Psalms 98 – vv 1-10

Cantate Domino

O sing unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things.

² With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

³ The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

⁴ He hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

⁵ Shew yourselves joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, rejoice, and give thanks.

⁶ Praise the Lord upon the harp: sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

⁷ With trumpets also and shawms: O shew yourselves joyful before the Lord the King.

⁸ Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

⁹ Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord: for he is come to judge the earth.

¹⁰ With righteousness shall he judge the world: and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

2 Thessalonians 2–1-5, 13-17 – Christine

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters ² not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. ³ Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. ⁴ He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. ⁵ Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? ¹³ But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. ¹⁶ Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷ comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Gradual Hymn –99 O God our help, in ages past

Luke 21– vv 5-19

⁵ When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, ⁶ “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.” ⁷ They asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?”⁸ And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say,

‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them. ⁹ “When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.” ¹⁰ Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; ¹¹ there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. ¹² “But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. ¹³ This will give you an opportunity to testify. ¹⁴ So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; ¹⁵ for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. ¹⁶ You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷ You will be hated by all because of my name. ¹⁸ But not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹ By your endurance you will gain your souls.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

“But now, for the first time, I see you are a man like me. I thought of your hand-grenades, of your bayonet, of your rifle; now I see your wife and your face and our fellowship. Forgive me, comrade. We always see it too late. Why do they never tell us that you are poor devils like us, that your mothers are just as anxious as ours, and that we have the same fear of death, and the same dying and the same agony--Forgive me, comrade; how could you be my enemy?”

— Erich Maria Remarque, All Quiet on the Western Front
